Brick Side Bar(4)

This area is where select the bricks that you want to add to your model. The brick are divided into sections by kind. To open a section click on it, to take a block click on and click again where you want it to release it. To rotate a block before you place it, use the arrow keys. There is also three buttons at the bottom of the brick side bar (from left to right)

Open or close all section
Opens or closes all the sections.

Filter bricks by color
Opens a window where you can filter the bricks by color, also you can remove the filter.

Filter bricks by boxes
Not sure what this, if you do please comment.

Main Window(5)

This is where you make your models. To move around is this window you can use the arrows on the side of the window or use the right mouse button. also you can hold down shift and right mouse button to pan. To zoom in and out use the mouse wheel.